Here We Grow Again

On Sunday, December 7th, Dawn Arnold came forward to rededicate her life to Christ. Please be in prayer for Dawn as she seeks to make the right choices in her life to follow in the steps of the Lord.

The CLC was again a beautiful setting for the annual Christmas Eve Candlelight Service. This annual tradition was made complete with music, devotions and the serving of communion. A great way to focus on the meaning of Christmas. Thank you to all the musicians and the behind the scene workers and those who helped decorate the space and donated poinsettias. It is greatly appreciated.

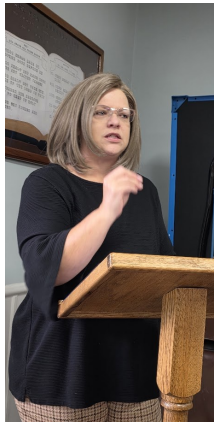

The Young at Heart joined together on Dec. 18th for their annual Christmas Dinner. This year Kody & Mary Rachel Norris once again joined us to bring us some Christmas music. We are so grateful for them sharing with us each year their musical talents! The food and fellowship made for an enjoyable evening. Be sure to join us on January 15th for the annual Chili/Soup and Bingo Night! Lots of prizes will be given - Come join us!

The ladies had lots of laughs at their Christmas Brunch on Dec. 6th. Patricia Morefield led the group in a great devotion that touched many and the trio of Cyndi, April and Patti sang for us! Food was eaten, games were played (decorated a Christmas tree with items from your purse!), secret sisters were drawn and crafts were made! It was a fun morning for everyone in attendance! A great way to kick off the month of December!

On Sunday, Dec. 21st the Children and Adult Choir presented a mini-cantata / drama. The drama took place at a home decorating the Christmas Tree and listening to the local radio station, WFCC play Christmas songs with a history of the song. The children also sang Away in a Manger. After the presentation we enjoyed finger foods in the CLC.

I, especially this past year, am constantly looking forward to the future and what will and can be accomplished. January and the new year is always a time people look to the future. But I have to remind myself that you can only achieve great things in the future if you are taking care of yourself in the present.

And although I am not a big New Year's Resolution guy, I did get back into some good habits for the new year. For instance, I have become more consistent in my daily Bible reading through using a great little app on my Kindle. I have begun making sure that I post regularly on the churches site. I have been using my pray journal more consistently. And I could go on.

The point is, I am taking care of my personal, physical and spiritual needs daily as I should to ensure that I can achieve what God wants me to in the way He wants me to.

I would encourage each of you to do the same. We all want to know what God's will is for the future. We all want to set goals to be accomplished that are within God's will. But we need to make sure that we do so while staying in God's will at the moment. So let me ask you some questions to help you evaluate where you are at this moment:

- * Are you attending church regularly?
- * Are you praying consistently--daily?
- * Are you reading your Bible daily? (Even if it is just a few verses a day.)
- * Are you involved in at least one ministry of the church?

Dwayne
